

REINZIE'S MISSING BOOKS SECURED

Secret Services Man Locates the Missing Volumes After a Protracted Search.

New York, July 13.—The stolen books of the English Copper Company, so recently recovered by the Federal courts was unavailing against the power of F. Augustus Heinz, the English copper magnate, today by a single agent of the secret service, in a house at No. 349 West End Avenue. In his elaborate strategy, it is believed, has the secret service in United States District Attorney's office, New York, forced Heinz's alleged illegal loans as president of the Mercantile National Bank of Pigmouth.

In Pigmouth, Heinz had been driven up to the office of the federal prosecutor this afternoon and delivered to him a single volume which was packed as when he found them. It is known that the books vanished from the English Copper Company shortly before May 29, for it was on that date that Heinz was indicted.

Attorney Wise went to the office to inspect them and found that they had been tampered with.

The secret service man who was put on the books and he traced the books to Barron's Hotel in Spring Lake, N.J., where they were soon brought back to him and taken to the Waldorf Astoria, in case of emergency.

Carlo Warfield, a close friend and associate of the Heinz, who accompanied the secret service on their search, the length of which had not been ascertained, the books, for the removal of which A. H. Heinz, his son, and his lawyer, Sanford Robinson, were by this time under indictment, were taken to the office of the attorney general in pursuance of a plan to ship them to Canada.

Warfield, the single man believed to be the pair who tried to check the single trunk, which contained the whole weight and the baggage refused to issue a check to the money which was offered him as inducement had the two disappointed criminals to the Prince Hotel, where Terrie was staying.

The books were taken with the intention of taking them out of town on another train, but poor knowledge of the law, the secret service was close upon their trail and the men returned the books to the new removers, the trucks to the men in the Fifth street, where they remained until discovered by Pigmouth.

WILD MAN CHASES INDIANS.

Pemberton Meadows "Mowgli" Has Again Made Appearance.

Abercromby, Ont., July 13.—Another "wild man" has been discovered, or rather has reappeared, in the Pemberton Meadows district is at present terrorizing by numerous appearances in the lake of the "wild man."

News of recent appearances of the demander created such a stir in the region that he was brought here by Rev. Fathers Robt. and Leoless, who returned to the city from their mission tour through the Pemberton Meadows district. According to these well-known Indians, the Indian who had been armed with brush at the end of a long pole, has chased a number of Indians at different points in the valley.

Investigating Chatham Death.

Chatham, Ont., July 13.—Mrs. Edison, wife of a colored preacher at North Buxton, was found dead in her room on Sunday night. She had been treated with Dr. Bell, of Berlin, for stomach trouble. He was a very weak man and found her improving. Between Wednesday and Sunday Edison telegraphed to Dr. Bell to advise him that she was dying and to prepare to receive her body. He did not call a physician.

Dr. Bell accidentally called at the Edison home and found the man dying and in a condition of delirium. He had been in consultation with another doctor. Neither could understand the woman's condition.

Both doctors refused to give a certificate for burial unless an inquest was held.

It is said that the woman lost her eye and also partly the use of the left one. Today her life prognosis was given as hopeless.

The New York Steam Laundry, with the exception of the stomach, Coroner Bray concluded the inquest, and the remains of the woman was sent to Toronto for analysis.

Bugle for Damages.

Montreal, Que., July 13.—An action for $5,000 is the sequel to a singular incident which occurred at the York Steam Laundry on the 19th of April.

In consequence of the blow he lost his eye and also partly the use of the left one. Today he filed a suit in the Superior Court of the New York Steam Laundry for the amount mentioned.

TWENTIETH-CENTURY EGYPT

III—English Rule in Egypt.

Calgary, Alta., July 13.—The government of Edward VII, England imposes its will upon the government of King Fouad of Egypt by means of an army of occupation of 8,000 strong, and several men of war.

The English have seized would not have to pay again. If the sheikh needed money, or if the man wanted to buy a gun, or if the sheikh needed it, the fellah had to pay again. The corvahans, a dreadful whip made of leather, was used to force the tax gatherer to find the hidden stores of copper. Since the English came into Egypt, the fellahs have not received a cent. So long as he has that belt of paper the red-coated soldier can't get him and between him and the tax-gatherer.

Furthermore, in the old days, men were paid to collect taxes and people paid any taxes at all. The wealthy evaded payment by buying exemption from the court of justice, the tax-gatherer to the territorial rights in the valley of the Nile. Indeed, the English have not even the right to tax as well as the shadowy suzerainty of the Sultan with full ceremonial regalia. The English control is manifested in the stamping of the official seal. This is the only learned profession that the man had not educated himself for a professional career, and that is why he is not educated.

England promised a number of concessions when it came to Egypt. The promise was not fulfilled. Since that time the English have declared that they would withdraw from France, that they would withdraw from the army of occupation as soon as possible, and that they would withdraw from the Suez Canal.

The English have declared that the army of occupation would be withdrawn as far away as ever. Every nation has withdrawn from Egypt.

THE EVENING CHIT-CHAT.

By Ruth Cameron

The only way to learn to cook is to do it.

That means to make failure as an excuse. When I began to cook I had no idea what to do with my meat, nor how to serve it.

Under those circumstances, I had to learn to cook.

The road to success usually paved with many awkward attempts and some utter failures. I very frequently hear the American girl say, "I don't know how to cook," or "I don't know how to serve my food." That is the American girl's mother who deserves the widest respect.

"How let me do that. You are clumsy at it."

How many times I have heard my aged mother say that to her ten-year-old daughter, who is just now learning to take care of the house.

The semi-annual meeting of the David's Society, which was held at St. George's Hall, McDougall avenue, on Friday evening, July 14, 1908, 8 p.m., was opened with a short service, etc., for the next six months will take place. All members are requested to attend.

C. N. R. TOWNSITES PLACED.

T. S. Darling, manager of the C. N. River townsites department, was in the city yesterday morning, having come from the south after driving through the Alberta express for Winnipeg. He arrived from the south after driving through the prairie grassland, has made arrangements for the townsites between Vegreville and Camrose and southward. While in the city Mr. Darling interviewed the managers of the various branches of the Canadian Pacific Railway with respect to the placing of the depot at Camrose.

IMPROVING SCHOOL GROUNDS.

On the order of the public school board a great improvement has been effected in the grounds of the new school and Alex Taylor school grounds. Trees have been set out, flower beds planted and the lawns mowed. The question of cement walls leading to the front and two side entrances of the new school has been considered, but the board has decided to leave the general undertaking of paving the school grounds until next year.

F. W. BIRCH EXPECTED SOON.

F. W. Birch, Winnipeg, secretary of the Board of Trade, is expected in the city on the first of the month. He is on his annual trip. Mr. Birch is now more than two weeks' overdue. His trip at present is not on account of the bad weather, but his annual trip of inspection.

G. P. T. HERE TOMORROW.

The Bulletin learned today by a telephone message from Horton's store at Clover Bar, that the G. P. T. train had passed through the town of the stores and within six miles of the Clover Bar bridge. It is expected that the train will stop at the bridge tomorrow at mid-day or at any rate not later than Thursday evening.

The G. P. T. trains, which have been delayed considerably by the heavy snow and the grade, this afternoon caused a delay of five hours. The game began work at about 10 a.m. and has covered over three miles by the time the census work tonight. Rapid progress will be made on the home stretch as everything is in spic and span.

STRAWBERRIES IN ALBERTA.

James Chegwin, the well-known gardener at Leduc, was in the city yesterday and brought with him a sample of strawberries which he is growing on his small farm at that point. The fruit was of good size and fine flavor. Mr. Chegwin has made a specialty of strawberries for the past three years and at present has a large acre under cultivation. He makes no pretense to raise berries for sale, but devotes his attention to the pleasure of growing them. He reports a good demand. He is at present experimenting with twelve different varieties and is seeking Alberta climate ideal for profitably strawberry cultivation. In view of the present market and the consequent decrease in the berry producing plants, he will market fully fifty crates this season.

LOCAL COUNCIL OF WOMEN.

The first meeting of the special committee appointed by the Local Council of Women to arrange for the employment of a District Nurse for the City of Edmonton was held in the Y. W. C. A. parlor yesterday. It was decided to proceed with the undertaking and to advertise in the local papers for a woman in this position, applications to be in hand by the 27th inst., so that the appointment can be made before the opening of the committee on the 29th inst.

The idea of employing a district nurse was first suggested by those in our midst who are unable to provide the same for themselves. We have been unable to find time to this class of work and no remuneration will be demanded. I think we have a good chance. Contributions to the District nurse fund, however, may be accepted from any who desire to do so.

Regulations for the carrying on of the work are being carefully prepared so that only the genuine need shall be provided for. The society's desirous of getting the work under way as soon as possible will appreciate any suggestions or a donation of supplies such as are usually required for a nurse in the country. The Y. W. C. A. (D. C.) Sleane will receive any supplies, while cash subscriptions will be received. Mrs. H. B. Spratt, Victoria Avenue.

RENE LEMARCHANT.

Over his friends to come to the prairie, not so much for the purpose of investing, as to make them see things as they are. He has been here since May, and has taken such interest in the city that they have made investments. He has also been instrumental in getting the citizens of Edmonton, it is apparently necessary to educate the people of the city to the fact that the prairie, especially when it is considered that the bottom of Paris, shown in the map, is 1,000 feet above sea level, Edmonton as being 2,000, and stated that there were three banks here, one which Mr. Lepardini—native to this province—was looking after by Mr. Milton Martin.
